Friends Gala Centennial Celebration on August 9 Features “Dr. Beach”

Friends of the Cape Cod National Seashore is hosting a “Summer Beach Party under the Tent” on Tuesday, August 9, 4 to 7 pm, at the Payomet Performing Arts Center at the Highlands Center in North Truro. Come celebrate 100 years of the National Park Service and help us raise funds to repair and reopen the Red Maple Swamp Trail at Fort Hill, Eastham.

Our celebrity speaker will be Dr. Stephen Leatherman, aka “Dr. Beach,” whose annual ratings of the Top Ten U.S. Beaches draw national attention to our area. He recently released his 2016 ratings, ranking the Seashore’s Coast Guard Beach as number five!

Dr. Leatherman directs Florida International University’s Laboratory for Coastal Research. He is an internationally known coastal ecologist, who has published 20 books and hundreds of scientific articles about storm impacts and coastal erosion. A topic that certainly resonates with Cape Codders. Dr. Leatherman’s early career included a stint at the Cape Cod National Seashore. We look forward to hearing his insights on the Outer Beach.

Enjoy delicious hors d’oeuvres, donated by Event Sponsor Far Land on the Beach, wine and beer generously donated by Town Center Wine & Spirits, as well as dessert from Whole Foods. “The Magic of Steel” will play Calypso and island music for our “Beach Party” and there will be both a Silent and Live Auction with many delectable items to bid on. (See page 7 for a partial listing of the Live Auction items. All Auction items will be pictured on the Friends website.)

We encourage all Friends members to consider attending the Gala and supporting the National Seashore. Tickets are $100 per person – “100 for 100” to honor the Centennial of the National Park Service. But more than that, this is a way to contribute to our very own Cape Cod National Seashore.

Help reopen the Red Maple Swamp Trail

Friends has just committed to a major fundraising campaign to help the Seashore restore sections of the boardwalk of the popular Red Maple Swamp Trail at Fort Hill, which has been closed for several years due to structural concerns and deterioration. The Gala is the kickoff of this ongoing campaign – all proceeds raised will go to restoring the boardwalk.

Red Maple Swamp boardwalk before deterioration, and its current condition.

Join us for a very special evening “under the tent” full of fellowship and learning, music, good food and drink, a chance to bring home a treasure, all to benefit Cape Cod National Seashore.

Meet the New Directors of Friends

Donna Cary retired six years ago, after careers in accounting and medical research, most recently as a self-employed Certified Public Accountant working with public housing authorities. After living in Maine for 22 years, she and her husband became year-round residents of Eastham in 2003. With a love of the outdoors and nature, she has been a frequent visitor to the Cape Cod National Seashore and has spent many hours hiking the trails and beaches, including all of Thoreau's historic walks. In addition to the board of the Friends, Donna currently volunteers at the Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary. She has served on the Finance Committee for the Town of Eastham and served as Treasurer of the Friends of the Eastham Public Library, Inc. Donna will become the treasurer of Friends this summer.

Darin Krum spent many summers on Cape Cod as a child, often visiting the Seashore with his parents. Walking trails, touring the several historic buildings and attending many an evening program at the Salt Pond Visitor Center are among his fondest memories of the park. A graduate of Cape Cod Community College with a degree in Retail Management, he now works with his brothers Seth and Brad managing Eastham Ace Hardware. Darin and his wife Natacha have two daughters, Sabine and Coralie. He also serves as President of the Eastham Chamber of Commerce and Lay Leader at Eastham United Methodist Church. Darin is working to build stronger relationships between local businesses and the park for everyone's benefit.

Susan Kurtzman earned a BA in Ceramic Design from University of California, Berkeley and a Masters in Special Education. She worked as a liaison and consultant for visually impaired adults and children before making a career change in the mid-1980s. For the next 18 years Susan worked as a Creative Director in direct marketing advertising in New York and Boston. In 1999, after moving to Truro full time, Susan became the Curator for the Highland House Museum, located in the National Seashore and operated by the Truro Historical Society. There she met Joe Colliano of Jobi Pottery, a business that was started in Truro in 1953. Susan bought the business in 2004 and opened the new Jobi Pottery and Gallery in Truro, reviving this unique Truro cottage industry. Susan is passionate about Cape Cod history, is a member of the Friends board, and also serves on the board of Truro Historical Society as Exhibitions Chair, responsible for summer exhibitions at the Museum.

Friends Board of Directors, 2015-2016

Friends of the Cape Cod National Seashore 2016 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Friends sponsors FREE concerts and events for Cape Cod residents and visitors to the National Seashore. It also supports the popular "Tuesday Evenings at Salt Pond," as well as events at the Province Lands Visitor Center and Herring Cove Beach, Provincetown.

CONCERTS AND EVENTS

Salt Pond Visitor Center, Eastham

THURSDAY, JUNE 30, 7 PM

Songs of the Sea

Join local musicians Denya LeVine and Julie Charland for a whimsical maritime concert of chanteys, folk music, fiddle tunes and 20th-century popular music.

THURSDAY, JULY 7, 7 PM

Billy and Beth

Billy Hardy and Beth Sweeney have been performing Celtic music together for more than 20 years, playing the fiddle, piano, banjo and mandolin. Their songs draw from the traditions of Ireland, Scotland, Canada, and the United States.

WED., JULY 20, 7:30 PM

Saving Terrapins, Cape Cod's Only Salt Marsh Turtle

Bob Prescott is the esteemed director of Audubon's Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary. His knowledge of the Cape and its natural environs is legendary. Come hear Prescott speak about the Sanctuary's efforts to protect nesting areas of the diamondback terrapin, create habitat, and educate the public. The lecture follows the FCCNS Annual Meeting, which begins at 7:00 P.M.

"Curtis on Tour" Community Concert

Musicians from the renowned Curtis Institute of Music, in collaboration with the Cape Cod Chamber Music Festival, will perform a string quartet and the introduction to a new work commissioned by the Festival in celebration of the NPS Centennial. Composed by Jonathan Bailey Holland, the work was inspired by the National Seashore. It will be performed in its entirety at the Festival's opening concert on Friday, July 29.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 4, 7 PM

The Outer Cape Chorale Chamber Singers

A glorious evening of song by this esteemed Outer Cape chorale ensemble. Performance includes songs of living by the sea – from the perspective of those who sailed the ships for fishing, whaling, and slavery.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 9, 4-7 PM

Friends Gala Centennial Celebration.

"Summer Beach Party under the Tent" at Payomet Performing Arts Center, Truro, to raise funds to reopen the Red Maple Swamp Trail. Features presentation by Stephen Leatherman, aka "Dr. Beach," music by "The Magic of Steel," complimentary wine, beer, and hors d'oeuvres, and a silent and live auction. $100 per person.

TUESDAY EVENINGS AT SALT POND

Sponsored by FCCNS, all of these CCNS programs are FREE, last about an hour, and take place on Tuesday evenings at 7 PM at Salt Pond Visitor Center auditorium (wheel chair accessible), Eastham. Space is limited, so arrive early. Doors open at 6:30 PM. For more information call SPVC at 508-255-3421, ext. 0.

Massachusetts Walking Tour Concert

Since 2010 founders Mark Mandeville and Raianne Richards have organized this bipedal concert tour in support of art and culture throughout the state. See members arrive with their instruments, after hiking Cape trails. Concert features music of the founders as well as Amy Alvey and Mark Kiliansky, with arrangements on guitar, banjo, harmonica, tin whistle, ukulele and fiddle.

Eastham of Old

Join Jim Owens, a director of the Eastham Historical Society, as he takes you on a slide-show journey through Eastham history. Owens, a native Cape Codder, is a former president of the Society. He has studied Eastham history and collected historic photos for many years.

JUNE 28

Erica Wheeler

An award-winning songwriter, TEDx speaker, educator and professional development trainer, Wheeler celebrates the nature and history of Cape Cod through this engaging concert full of song, story and humor that evokes a sense of place and belonging.

JULY 5

Songs and Stories for a Small Planet

Stand-Up Chameleon Jackson Gillman presents a celebration of nature with an eye to where we fit in and how we can help sustain our world. In this rollicking performance that will delight and engage all ages, Jackson draws from the briny deep to the starry heavens.

JULY 12

Cape Cod Climate Change

Join CCNS's Research Plant Ecologist Stephen Smith to learn how various aspects of climate change have influenced kettle ponds, salt marshes, and nearshore ocean conditions. The rather dramatic changes in air quality, water chemistry and vegetation in these ecosystems will continue to change with ongoing global warming.

JULY 19

Toast and Jam

These returning favorites will perform lively original bluegrass, swing, modern folk and Americana music, using a wide variety of instruments.

JULY 26

Catboat Restoration

Tony Davis, a boat builder, sailing instructor, and owner of Arey's Pond Boat Yard, presents an inside look at the four-year restoration of the Conjuror, a 1909 H. Manley Crosby Catboat. Arey's Pond Cats are descended from traditional wooden catboats launched on Narragansett Bay 200 years ago.

AUGUST 2

Got Salt?

Krill Carson tells about the life of Salt, the most famous humpback whale in the world. First seen in the mid-1970s, she returns each season to feed in the cold, productive waters off Cape Cod. Before the presentation, view NECWA's life-size inflatable model of Salt.

AUGUST 9

Great White Shark Research

Join Dr. Greg Skomal for an inside look at his work with white sharks. A senior fisheries biologist with Mass Marine Fisheries since 1987, who currently heads up the Mass Shark Research Program, his shark research spans multiple fish habitats around the globe. This is a ticketed event. Space is limited, so call SPVC at 508-255-3421, ext. 0 to reserve your spot.

AUGUST 16

Then and Now: The Amazing Transformation of Cape Cod 1916-2016

CCNS's Mapping Specialist Mark Adams and Historian Bill Burke take us on a fast-moving visual journey through the seashore's changing landscape over the past century. Some places have stayed the same, while others are dramatically transformed or gone altogether.

AUGUST 23

Snowy Owls to Saw-whet Owls

Since 1981, Norman Smith has spent countless winter days and nights, in every imaginable weather condition, observing, capturing, banding and color marking snowy owls at Logan International Airport. Data has been collected on roosting, hunting and behavior. Find out what Smith has learned to date, and how this project developed to include research on saw-whet owls.

AUGUST 30

The Coast Guard's Most Daring Rescue

In February 1952 a ferocious nor'easter split in half an oil tanker, the Pendleton, off the coast of Cape Cod. Author Michael Tougias will give a slide presentation on his book The Finest Hours, now the basis of a Disney movie. He will focus on four young Coast Guardsmen who had to overcome insurmountable odds to save the lives of 32 stranded Pendleton crewmen. The book will be available for purchase and the author will be signing copies prior to the program. This is a ticketed event. Space is limited, so call SPVC at 508-255-3421, ext. 0 to reserve your spot.

PROVINCE LANDS VISITOR CENTER

WED., JULY 27, 3 – 5 PM

Friends Seeks to Increase Its Visibility

Friends is working hard to find new and effective ways to make our mission – and our very existence – well known to Cape residents and visitors alike. Some exciting initiatives are underway to help us increase our visibility during this summer's NPS centennial celebrations. Among them, we are working closely with Herring Cove concessionaire Far Land on the Beach to promote the Wednesday and Sunday evening live concert series at Herring Cove. Friends volunteers will be on hand to discuss our mission and promote our August 9 fundraising event "Summer Beach Party under the Tent", which is being generously sponsored by Far Land. Another partner and park resident, Payomet Performing Arts Center, is supporting us by hosting the event and assisting with ticket sales and promotions.

We are always looking for ways to involve the younger generation in Friends activities. Nauset Regional High School students in the video production class recently produced a terrific promotional video for the Friends. Watch for it to be shown this summer in a theater near you — or to view it anytime visit our website. You will also find an informational video created by AmeriCorps volunteer Emily McDermott about our hardworking and dedicated Cut, Pile and Burn volunteers.

In addition, we will have Friends information cards available on beach shuttle trams and at beach parking stations, and we will give the cards along with Park season passes and senior passes. We want everyone to know "If you love the Park – join the Friends!"

We welcome your input! If you have ideas or want to work with our communications committee to help promote the Friends, please contact us at info@fccns.org.

Auction Items at the Gala Centennial Celebration

Friends will hold an Auction at its August 9 "Summer Beach Party under the Tent" to raise addition funds for the National Seashore – both a Live Auction and a Silent Auction. The list had not been finalized by press time, but listed below are unique items in the Live Auction.

- South African Photo Safari for two at Zulu Nyala wildlife preserve – 6 days/6 nights lodging, 3 meals daily, and two guided wildlife viewing activities each day. The experience of a lifetime in the heart of one of Africa's richest conservation areas.
- Golf four-some, with carts, at Highland Links, Truro donated by Johnson Golf Management. Golf as it was meant to be. Only one of four courses in the country to be called links – a rough and natural course in the Scottish tradition.

- Marston Hodgkin watercolor, framed. A revered local artist and friend who died in Provincetown in 2003. His paintings evoke the timeless serenity of the Outer Cape landscape, now forever preserved by the National Seashore.
- Milton Wright oil painting, framed. A noted "colorist" who painted evocative landscapes and bayscapes of the Outer Cape. A grandnephew of the Wright brothers, Milt had a studio at Great Hollow Beach in Truro where he lived with his wife from 1955 to 2005.

See Friends website www.fccns.org for illustrations of the items.

*Watch for the 2016 Friends Magazine, which will be mailed to all members
in late June.*
